Higher: 64.7%

Lower: 35.3%

#3: Please rate your level of confidence in your answer to Question #2.

Average of All Guesses: 58.8%

Average For "Higher" Guesses: 60.0%

Average For "Lower" Guesses: 56.7%

#1: What economic, political, or other news and events are you expecting to happen next week (January 20-24) that might have a positive or negative effect on the markets?

- Earnings
- Continued favorable earnings reports will move markets to new highs
- "middle east problems
bull bear ratio"
- Short Trading Week and Earnings Reports.
- Earnings
- Earnings - earnings
- Stock earnings.
- Earnings from big tech will move things.
- earnings are a little soft.
- negative
- Nothing all that important on the docket next week - Flattish market to continue
- I expect more bad earnings reports from the 4th quarter

#4: How do you think the 2013-2014 implementation of the Affordable Care Act ("Obamacare") will be remembered 10-20 years from now?

- Minor incident
- As a horror. A modified version will come into play sometime in the future especially if another major crash occurs but Obamacare will always be remembered as a major flop (even if it succeeds temporarily).
- It will not be remembered because the Act will have been either repealed or revised dramatically by then
- like social security today
- Big Load Of Crap That Confused Everyone and Raised Both Taxes and Cost Of Insurance.
- Disaster
- A terrible product invented by government

- Dumbest government attempt to solve a problem ever. Two kids on their ps4 could have built a better website.
- As a total disaster!!!
- Will be deeply remembered because it vast negative effects on current corporate investment and employment.
- A really bad idea
- well, that was another government disaster.
- Higher costs
- A big mistake
- I htink it will be rememnered for what it is, a joke. There is nothing in this that screams affordabl;e. Contrary to what we have been told, it does not cover routine screenings, until after a large deductible has been met (and that deductible is way past what it costs to have an annual physical, or mammogram, or colonoscopy, etc) It is fundamentally a joke and provides catastrophic coveraghe only and the costs are still prohibitive. Obamecare should be abolished and Obama should be impeached as this healthcare is a JOKE.
- A bungled, unAmerican socialist program.

#5: Comments/Questions/Suggestions?

- None.
