Week 19 - 02/02/14 Report:

#2: Would you guess that the S&P 500 index will move higher or lower next week? (from Monday's open to Friday's close; February 3-7)

Higher: 42.9%

Lower: 57.1%

#3: Please rate your level of confidence in your answer to Question #2.

Average of All Guesses: 67.1%

Average For "Higher" Guesses: 70.0%

Average For "Lower" Guesses: 65.0%

#1: What economic, political, or other news and events are you expecting to happen next week (February 3-7) that might have a positive or negative effect on the markets?

- Positive seasonality during the first week of the month
- None, it is the quiet time of the year.
- It is quiet time of the year, and I think that the country will be at rest, unless there is some terrible thing that happens
- Keystone Pipeline will be approved. A lack of government response to the chemical spill in West Virginia's Elk river will send a message to chemical industry that the EPA has no teeth and will have no power to enforce regulations.
- Immigration and the pipeline
- jobs report
- Job reports and econ eval on Friday, I believe
- Continuing Fed Taper and Impact On Emerging Markets and Second Tier Markets.
- JOBS REPORT
- Fed maintaining policy.
- Jobs report
- Obama wants to crush rich guys.
- currency/interest rate issues
- employment report
- Amazon will pull tech and the Nasdaq with it.
- I think the markets generally will continue to become less stable, more volatile, with downward pressure caused by private investors becoming more concerned about the inept leadership in government.
- "Winter Olympics Issues
Thailand Unrest
Ukraine Turmoil
Stock Market Declies"
- ground hog day.
- jail a banker

- Negative - amnesty push along with Obama pushing more communism on America leading us to a false and stagnant economy.
- Further negative reactions to Pres. Obama's "declaration" that he will be pursuing a continuing course of illegal and unconstitutional actions to try and FORCE his socialist agenda onto America, against the will of both Congress and the majority of the American people.
- "NFP monthly report continuing earnings reports"
- Obama making a speech
- rebuke obamacare
- The pipeline NOT beeing approved by the k-ING. It will be a NEGATIVE market.

#4: On Tuesday, President Obama gave his 2014 State of the Union address, what did you think of the speech? Which policy suggestions do you think would be especially good or bad for the country?

- I think that the Obama speech was great and that it will be good for the country
- It was in general a good speech for the country, the economy and the World
- It's a good time for Corporate America. It's a bad time for working class
- More B.S. His new MyRA is bad because of what will come next.
- Laundry list of his failures...XL pipeline good...immigration bad
- all his policies r bad. he is digging big hole 4 usa to have to dig out of. things have to get really bad before people wake up
- "I thought his speech was probably one of the worst ever. More big promises that cannot possibly be carried out. More irrational, unrealistic, completely unsustainable pie-in-the-sky ideas.
 1. LOWER TAXES!!!! Every time a president has significantly lowered taxes, it has jumpstarted our economy. Every time. Of course, we haven't had a significant reduction of taxes since George W.'s early years. I don't believe for a second that we are all the way out of this recession. My husband works in economic development for a large corporation. The hard numbers show that we are actually still technically in a recession, and that the unemployment numbers and closed businesses numbers and bankruptcies and foreclosures are all much, much higher than are being reported by Washington.
 2. Scrap Obamacare. It will bankrupt us all. Even independent economic analysts say it will be the most costly bill ever in our history. The financial death spiral has begun. Not enough healthy people signed up--it cannot be sustained except with a huge increase in everyone's taxes. Yes, it's a nice thought to be able to provide health care to everybody, but the mathematics do not work. I trade for a living. The government needs to look at the math on their ideas and bills and stop trying to buy votes. Let's get real. "
- Did Not Listen To It As He Is Not A Leader But Just A Speech Maker Puppet.
- HAS TO DO SOMETHING ON HIS OWN ACCORD TO BYPASS FRAGMENTED CONGRESS.
- Excellent. More assertive attitude.
- He said nothing of interest
- All BAD!
- Not much, same old b.s. Bad for the country, IRA's for everyone - not interested in funding the treasury!!

- savings plan
- "I think any state of the Union speech is Theater of the inept. He never mentions what would work: Abolish the IRS, go to a flat tax, and let corporations repatriate without penalty."
- I wasted my time. He said nothing new. He just repackages the same old dramatic dream he has for programs to take wealth away from those that produce it in order to give it to those that do nothing.
- A Whipped Second Term Lame Duck delivery! Needed photo ops and speech inflections to muster some semblance of creditability.
- good speech but same old stuff he has been planing to do for 5 years. little said about the afac which will destroy this country.
- jail a banker
- Obama gave the same speech 6 years ago nothing new just more government trying to manipulate markets into prosperity. Mimimum wage increase is purely political. Legalizing illegal alliens will be a disaster. Gloomy outlook for future. I actually believe Obama is trying to destroy the dollar, weaken or break the United States and he just may accomplish his goal.
- "The speech was weak, lack-luster, boring, overly long by 100%, and (apparently)partly plagerized from other sources. Other than that, it was the usual Obama admixture of rhetoric rubbish, politically based lies, hallucinatory leftist nonsense, and the obsessional ""me-me-me-it's all about M-E"" drivel that characterize EVERY speech he gives these days. In addition, it was a total waste of airtime for the networks, who were forced to cover it. Pathological narcissism to the bone !
Every single policy he has enacted (or tried to enact) since he took office has been either BAD or VERY BAD for the nation. Nothing he said shows the slightest grasp of objective reality. He lives in a world of vapid socialist ideology and delusion, supported by a fawning cadre of outright ""worshippers"", who viciously attack anyone who dares to presume to criticize ""the Obamanation"" he has become.
I can't think of a single thing he has accomplished that was positive, especially in the midst of his continual prattling of denial on a dozen or more scandals that showcase the internal rot and utter corruption that characterize his administration."
- i think it was a poor speech. Pay equality and raising the minimum wage is a bad idea for our economy and the American way of life.
- The Hot Air warmed the room.
- Usless filled with more lies. Designed to increase dems standing in the poles.
- "eyewash
MyRA proposal does not address core problem: average wage earners need to earn more money in order to be able to save money.
More executive signing statements merely continues the drift towards an imperial presidency.
- a lie
- Obama has no creditability. He is not qualified to make any policy or decisions for the country.
- It was old crap, nothing worthy at all.
- did see it
- he's got TO show face to the public, approve this pipeline, he did say " I WILL MAKE JOB'S!

ROCK & HARD PLACE?

- I think Obama is a great President. It is too bad, that he always has to fight the Republican party.

#5: Comments/Questions/Suggestions?

- People should get off the wagon of complaining about everything that the President does...he is a good man and I think it is possible that people do not like him because of his color.
- The corporate world will know it has achieved its goal, when the working class can't afford to buy the products they manufacture.
- Impeach Obama
- QE continues even at a lower level will continue to prop up the markets.
- The solution to revitalize our nation is not more free stuff for non-workers. We already give so much for free to people who don't work or worse, are here completely illegally. For the non-workers, citizen or illegal, they can get free education, free college (I had to WORK my tail off 15-20 hours a week in addition to a full load of classes for all of undergrad and grad school and started working full time the week I got out), free food, free health care, free abortions, free birth control, free cell phones, free medicine, free unemployment checks, and even reduced prices for housing and utility bills. Seriously? If I were in my early twenties or here illegally, why would I want to go to work? (I do have a special needs child and I'm not at all talking about those who are truly handicapped and CANNOT work; I'm all for helping those who legitimately need it through special circumstances. Incidentally, my handicapped child receives no government aid). I think this administration wants to have as many people in this country NOT WORKING as possible and living off of the taxes that workers pay! So weird!
- "It would be interesting if you could post results of S&P 500 estimates also on an individual basis to contrast against the group consensus as to correct or not. Does the survey have any scientific basis?"
- same old same old
- jail a banker
- "Immediate Impeachment. Conviction by the Senate. Removal from the White House; forcibly, by U.S. Marshalls, if necessary. (Not likely to happen, unless the Republicans can win an overwhelming victory in the Senate next Nov. Minimum of 67 members req'd for conviction and removal !)"
- "The MyIRA idea is perfectly suited for idiots. $5 per month invested by the government will amount to nothing in however long one is invested. Probably the government will build a bureaucracy to manage the program increasing jobs but increasing government expenditures."
- "He won't do anything that might be good anyway. He refuses to cut spending on wasteful policies. He needs to end bad regulatory policies and help get people back to work. Blocking the pipeline and stopping Boeing from opening plants with the NLRB are bad policies. That kind of stuff needs to end. Using tax dollars to back solar and wind and electric cars is bad policy. Of course the biggie is repeal ACA."
- Pay no attention to the man behind the curtain! Our country has wasted 5 years of precious time with this imposter. He is most incompetent leader the country has ever had.
