NASDAQ: ARRY

Array Technologies, Inc.

Array Technologies focuses on building the structures that hold solar panel arrays that use its SmarTrack system, “a machine learning software that automatically adjusts module angles in response to weather and site conditions.”

ARRY’s market cap is currently around $3 Billion, with an average daily share volume of about 2.5 million. The company currently pays no dividend. The stock has been public for just over a year and is down about 41% over the last year (as compared to up about 31% for S&P500). However the stock bottomed out in May at a stable trading base and has been drifting higher since August.

ARRY may be a stock to consider for long-term growth with the solar industry.
